Day-by-day itinerary

1

Arrival in Sarajevo

Your driver meets you in the arrivals hall of Sarajevo Airport — about 20 minutes to the centre. Check in, rest, and in the evening walk through Baščaršija, the old bazaar, for Bosnian coffee by the Sebilj fountain.

Overnight: Sarajevo ● Baščaršija

2

Olympic mountains and the springs of the Bosna

A morning on Igman and Bjelašnica, the mountains of the 1984 Winter Olympics, less than an hour from the city — meadows, viewpoints and clean air. In the afternoon Vrelo Bosne: the springs of the river Bosna, wooden bridges and a long tree-lined avenue at Ilidža.

Overnight: Sarajevo ● Igman · Bjelašnica · Vrelo Bosne

3

Jablanica Lake, Mostar and the Buna spring

South through the Neretva valley, with a stop at the turquoise Jablanica Lake. In Mostar, the Old Bridge and the bazaar; then Blagaj, where the river Buna rises from a cliff beside the dervish house. About 125 km each way — back in Sarajevo in the evening.

Overnight: Sarajevo  Jablanica Lake · Stari Most · Blagaj Tekke

4

Travnik and up to Mount Vlašić

North-west to Travnik: the painted mosque, the clock tower, the fortress and the cold springs of Plava voda, with a lunch of Travnik cheese. In the afternoon up to the plateau of Vlašić for mountain air and a quiet night.

Overnight: Vlašić  Travnik · Vlašić

5

Jajce and on to Bihać on the Una

The waterfall of Jajce and the watermills on the Pliva lakes, then about 150 km north-west to Bihać, where the Una runs green through the town.

Overnight: Bihać  Pliva waterfall · Pliva Lakes · Bihać

6

Una National Park: Štrbački buk and Martin Brod

The best of the Una National Park: Štrbački buk, a 24-metre cascade of falls, and the many small waterfalls of Martin Brod. In summer, rafting with a local operator is possible.

Overnight: Bihać  Štrbački buk · Martin Brod

7

Back to Sarajevo

The longest drive of the trip — about 300 km — with a long lunch stop on the way. Free evening in Sarajevo.

Overnight: Sarajevo

8

Prokoško Lake on Mount Vranica

A high glacial lake on Vranica, surrounded by shepherds' huts and pastures — one of the most beautiful mountain views in Bosnia. The last part of the road is a mountain track; we choose the vehicle accordingly.

Overnight: Sarajevo  Prokoško Lake

9

Sarajevo old town, Trebević and Sunnyland

Gazi Husrev-beg Mosque, the Latin Bridge and the City Hall in the morning; then the cable car up Trebević and Sunnyland on its slope, with the alpine coaster and the best view over the city. Last evening in Baščaršija.

Overnight: Sarajevo  Baščaršija · Mount Trebević · Sunnyland

Free time according to your flight, then the transfer to Sarajevo Airport.
